C "Note: If played for Morris and the dance doesn't finish on a B part, play C Part instead of A to finish"

Redbornstoke Morris, with whom I used to dance and also play for, used this tune for a dance of the same name. A Bedfordshire Clanger is a pastry that has a savoury filling at one end and a sweet filling at the other, serving as a savoury course and dessert in one bake. It was originally enjoyed as a lunch snack for farm labourers in Bedfordshire.

This is a tune I wrote specifically for Nottingham Swing for my band Bosun Higgs. I named the tune after the excellent pub in Adderbury then run by Sandra and Chris Shallis, who also let us use their cottage for weekend rehearsals.
